Sri M. C. NARASIMHAN (Kolar Gold Fields).—With regard to the other representation about promises made by Government, it has been repeatedly raised but no action has been taken.

Mr. SPEAKER.—That will be done very soon.

Sri G. B. SHANKAR RAO, (Hirekerur).—Some of the members are treated like students. When some members get up you say 'no more discussion' but afterwards some members are given opportunity to speak.

I want to make a suggestion. Some of the Bills have been sent to Select Committees and we are awaiting their return. So far as I understand there are 14 Bills already for being disposed of and there are perhaps some Bills which were ready during the period of the previous Cabinet also. So there is enough work and we still need a fortnight more.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Why not a month? I have already given a reply and the Leader of the House also has given his reply. Let us not discuss about that. If there is enough work we will continue it longer. Now the work of the Assembly has been decided upon.

Sri L. S. VENKAJI RAO (Basavanagudi).—May I submit in this connection—I do not know if my Hon'ble friend was heard—my friend observed that oftentimes members were being treated as students in this House and the Speaker as Schoolmaster. . . . .

Mr. SPEAKER.—I am also a student and not a school master.

Sri V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU (Cubbonpet).—He said as "intruders" Sir.

Sri L. S. VENKAJI RAO.—Just now, the Chair remarked to say "why not the House sit for a month"; it was in a sarcastic manner. . . . . .

Mr. SPEAKER.—It is not so.

Sri L. S. VENKAJI RAO.—If it is not, I submit. Otherwise . . . . .

Mr. SPEAKER.—I never meant that.
